Defective appeal brief

1. The Appeal Brief filed on 7/5/05 in response to the final rejection is acknowledged and has been entered.
2. The Appeal Brief is defective because the Brief does not comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.192 because:
 - (1) Although Section (2) of the Brief is drawn to Related Appeals and Interferences, the applications have not been identified as related to appeals and interferences. Instead, Appellant states how the applications are related to the subject matter of the instant application without indicating which, if any of the applications are drawn to related appeals and interferences. Clarity is required
 - (2) Although Section (3) of the Brief is drawn to the Status of the Claims states that claim 29 is pending. However the status of other claims as originally filed is not recited. The Status of the Claims section is required to disclose the status of all the claims in the application, i.e. for each claim in the case, appellant must state whether it is cancelled, allowed, rejected, etc and each claim on appeal must be identified
 - (3) Although Section (6) of the Brief is drawn to the Grounds of Rejection to be Reviewed on Appeal indicates the rejection made under 35 USC 103, appellant failed to include the rejection made under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph for claim 29.
3. To avoid dismissal of the appeal, appellant must submit an appeal brief in compliance with the requirements of these sections within the longest of any of the following TIME PERIODS: (1) ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS, whichever is longer, from the mailing of this communication; (2) within the time period for reply to the action from which appeal has been taken; or, (3) within two months from the date of the notice of appeal under 37 CFR 1.191.

Art Unit: 1645

Extensions of these time periods may be granted under 37 CFR 1.136.
